

I am opposed to Broadband over Powerlines (BPL) due to increased likelihood of interference to potentially life saving usage of Amateur Radio HF communications in support of emergency operations.

Weighing the potential commercial gain of the few against the possibility of decreased assistance in natural disasters makes this opposition a natural position to take.